ALICE SCOTT

Call: 2015

For enquiries please call 020 7353 0711 or email

Alice Scott joined Chambers in October 2019 following the successful completion of pupillage. She is building a broad common law practice and accepts instructions in all areas of Chambers' work.

Prior to joining Chambers, Alice worked as a Legal Advisor to Grenfell Tower survivors and was instrumental in establishing a new legal advice clinic with the University College London Centre for Access to Justice in Stratford, advising over 100 vulnerable people on social welfare law. In these roles Alice provided tribunal representation in benefit appeals and worked towards developing and influencing public policy in social security and housing law.

She also spent four-months in Houston, Texas, representing people facing the death penalty. Alice received the Sir John Priestly Scholarship from Inner Temple to complete the internship.

Civil

Alice has appeared in possession claims and advised on landlord and tenant disputes, including easements and service charge provisions.

Alice regularly appears in the County Court, acting for both Claimants and Defendants in applications for relief from sanction, costs and default judgment and has appeared in bankruptcy petition hearings.

Alice often appears in fast track and small claims hearings acting for Claimants and Defendants in RTA and personal injury claims and credit hire cases.

Employment

Alice has been instructed to advise both Claimants and Respondent. Alice has appeared in the Employment Tribunal at the preliminary stage in cases of unfair dismissal, whistleblowing and wrongful dismissal. Alice has advised in discrimination and unfair dismissal claims on a pro bono basis.

Alice is very keen to grow her employment law practice and welcomes instructions in this area.

Inquests & Inquiries

Alice has been assisting Nigel Pascoe QC to produce a report into the deaths of five patients under the care of Southern Health NHS Foundation Trust. This was published in February 2020.

Alice is continuing to build her experience in private and public inquiries under the supervision of Nigel Pascoe QC and she has a special interest in developing this further.

Regulatory & Disciplinary

During pupillage Alice spent 3 weeks at the Nursing and Midwifery Council and is keen to expand upon this experience.

Criminal

Alice is qualified as a Grade 1 CPS Panel Advocate.

Alice regularly appears in the Magistrates Court representing private clients charged with driving offences, with a focus on presenting special reasons and exceptional hardship arguments. She also has experience of defending and prosecuting in cases involving offences against the person and public order offences.

Alice has appeared in the Crown Court, representing the Probation Service and defendants at PTPH and mentions.

Family

Alice has experience of preparing witness statements in private children disputes.

During Pupillage Alice had exposure to a broad range of family law cases and is keen to build a practice in this area.

Aviation

Alice accepts instructions in a variety of aviation matters. Alice's aviation practice predominantly comprises of delay or cancellation claims under Regulation (EC) No. 261/2004 and claims under the Montreal Convention for delay, damage and bodily injury.

Alice is available to draft pleadings and interim applications, as well as attend trial and interlocutory hearings.
