For enquiries please call +44 (0)20 7353 0711 or email

Hugh Travers is a specialist advocate who advises on all aspects of family law, including the financial aspects of divorce, and both private and public law children matters.

His work often includes cases with an international aspect.

Family Finance

Hugh's financial work includes cases with a wide range of assets including business entities and trusts. He regularly deals with residence, contact and care proceedings concerning children. His cases cover a wide range of factual bases including the most serious allegations of physical, sexual or emotional abuse.

Hugh's Court of Appeal practice has covered issues as diverse as the application of section 91(14) of the Children Act 1989, to the factual basis upon which a finding of sexual abuse may be made against a child.
