JULIE MACKENZIE

Call: 1978

For enquiries please call +44 (0)1793 539 899 or email

Julie Mackenzie is a highly experienced and skilled family practitioner. As a mother of three and with 30 years of practice in matrimonial work she brings considerable expertise and resources to the demanding and challenging world of the Family Court. She appears in the High Court, County Court and Family Proceedings Court dealing with all issues within Care Proceedings

Julie is also an experienced mediator in family, equestrian and civil mediation.

Equestrian Law

Julie is an accomplished horsewoman with a detailed and intuitive understanding of rural issues. She is the acclaimed author of Horse Law and has forged long standing relationships with vets and other equine experts giving her a particular grasp and understanding of horse related problems.

Family Finance

Julie's Matrimonial practice has been developed over nearly four decades and she has seen many social and legal changes in that time. Julie prides herself in a holistic approach to matrimonial litigation, recognising that the issues involved are often more complex than the bald facts would suggest. Julie specialises both in Public Law and Private Law with an emphasis upon Care proceedings and child arrangements. Julie has a particularly empathetic approach to those affected by disability or chronic illness.

Civil Mediation

Julie is particularly committed to the manifest benefits of mediation both as a mechanism for equitable solution and cost control in cases that might otherwise descend into protracted and costly litigation. Julie has conducted highly successful mediations in both equine and family disputes.

Qualifications

- Accredited Mediator (2005)

Professional associations

- Family Law Bar Association

Professional activities

- Julie regularly lectures on the subject of Horse law to both fellow professionals and lay people. Julie has developed a close working relationship with vets, animal behaviourists, sports psychologists, sport governing bodies and rider organisations.

Outside Interests

- Julie enjoys time with her family, country pursuits, genealogy, travel and of course horse riding.

Publications

- Julie is the author of Horse Law; the 3rd edition was published in January 2012.
