NAZNIN ISLAM

"My go-to counsel for over 10 years, Naznin makes it all look so effortless with her razor-sharp mind, exceptional eye for detail and charming courtroom manner. Clients especially love Naznin for her calming presence and sound advice."

Call: 2000

For enquiries please call +44 (0)20 7353 0711 or email

Naznin specialises in public and private children law proceedings. She has particular expertise in cases involving international elements, including child abduction, forced marriage and relocation. Naznin also deals with complex matters involving domestic violence and sexual abuse, mental health and non-accidental injuries.

Prior to joining chambers in 2005, Naznin practiced from Tooks Court (Chambers of Michael Mansfield QC); headed an immigration department in a CAB; was Legal Advisor to AVID; and worked with the UNHCR in a consultancy role. Naznin further honed her human rights experience at the ECHR where she was employed as a lawyer at the invitation of the court.

Naznin's considerable experience in immigration, crime and human rights often assists her in effectively dealing with issues arising from children law matters. She has represented local authorities, parents, children, other relatives and intervenors as well as sports and media personalities. Naznin regularly appears before all levels of court, including the High Court and Court of Appeal.
