NIGEL PASCOE QC

"Particularly experienced in cases involving diminished responsibility"

Legal 500, 2020

Call: 1966 / Silk: 1988

For enquiries please call +44 (0)20 7353 0711 or email

Nigel Pascoe QC is a top specialist practitioner in criminal jury advocacy. He also undertakes Courts Martial, and public and private enquiry work, including issues of abuse. He is the senior member of Chambers and has been one of the top jury advocates in the country since taking Silk in 1988. He has appeared in over 130 murder cases. These include many high profile cases on the Western Circuit, since taking silk in 1988. He is particularly well known for his jury speeches.

He has considerable experience of mental health issues, notably in murder cases. He believes strongly in close teamwork in major cases and a good working professional relationship with professional and lay clients.

He is IT literate, with a particular interest in all aspects of Court technology. Specifically he is in a position to appear as an advocate and to advise online, both inside and outside the jurisdiction.

Nigel Pascoe may be instructed now to appear online as an advocate in England and Wales and other jurisdictions where overseas representation is permitted. Specifically he may be instructed in

- Serious Pleas in Mitigation
- Appeals against Sentence
- Miscellaneous preliminary or other proceedings.

This development has been made possible by the huge growth in online work, both in and outside the jurisdiction.

Criminal

Formerly Leader of The Western Circuit, he has been briefed in well over 130 murder cases, both prosecuting and defending, diminished responsibility has been a frequent feature. He was a President of the Mental Health Review Tribunal for over 12 years, dealing with more serious restricted cases. He is available for lectures and training on this subject, for further information please contact a member of the criminal clerking team.

He specialises in Jury speeches and believes passionately in trial by jury. He takes particular pleasure in opening his cases to the jury.

Courts Martial

Nigel undertakes Courts Martial work and has represented a senior Army officer charged with extensive fraud.

Inquests & Inquiries

Recorder of the Crown Court for 34 years. President of Mental Health Restricted Tribunals for over 10 years. Legal Assessor now to the Nursing and Midwifery Council. He has a specific interest in public and private Inquiries, mental health issues and serious disciplinary hearings.

Regulatory & Disciplinary

Nigel sits as a legal assessor in the NMC, where his long experience in very serious crime and in mental health cases is valued.
